

REAL ESTATE EXCISE TAX - INSTRUCTIONS & GUIDANCE SHEET

A COMPLETE FILING INCLUDES, AT MINIMUM: TWO ORIGINAL NOTARIZED AFFIDAVITS, PAYMENT OF ONE PERCENT EXCISE TAX, LEGAL DESCRIPTION, AND DEED, INCLUDING EXHIBIT(S) SHOWING all ENCUMBRANCES, COVENANTS, and FULL. A copy of well and/or septic permit is required when applicable. Other supporting documents may be required at the discretion of TLD. Voluntary (optional) documents may assist to expedite recording your filing. Please do not submit copies of this instruction page.

When submitting by mail, payments are removed from each filing and sent to the Cashier. If the tax obligation initially appears to be satisfied, the affidavit will be stamped evidencing such. The stamp does not certify the filing is complete, that the correct amount has been paid, or preclude action for underpayment. Taxpayers, or agents on their behalf, can expect a confirmation and /or determination letters within thirty (30) days after a complete filing has been received by the TLD. A copy of the receipt will be included with the letter of determination.

1. GROSS SALES PRICE: "Selling price" shall mean consideration, including money, or anything of value, paid or delivered, or contracted to be paid or delivered or services performed, contracted to be performed in return for the transfer of real property or estate or interest in real property, and shall include the amount of lien, mortgage, contract indebtedness, or other encumbrance, either given to secure the purchase prices, or any part thereof, or remaining unpaid on such property at the time of sale. When consideration is other than money and the transfer is taxable, market value is to be reported.
2. REAL ESTATE: Means real property, including all improvements the title to which is held separately from the title to the land to which the improvements are affixed. The term also includes used mobile homes and used floating homes, as well as air and development rights.
3. INTENT TO EVADE: Includes knowingly making false statements or taking actions so as to intentionally underpay or not pay the proper real estate excise tax due on the transfer of real estate, or ignoring the tribal tax because of a jurisdictional dispute without meritorious legal justification.
4. PENALTY ASSESSED FOR WILLFUL FRAUD/ INTENT TO EVADE: A penalty of 50% of the additional tax found to be due or remaining due after insufficient payment upon transfers found to have committed willful fraud or intent to evade tax payment.
5. AFFIDAVITS: TLD is prohibited by adopted regulation from accepting incomplete affidavits. It is the taxpayer's (or the agent's working on their behalf) responsibility to furnish complete documentation for tax payments and claimed exemptions. Incomplete filings -affidavits missing information, filed without payment in full, or absent any document required to process the transaction shall be considered late for purposes of penalty (see #6 below). Incomplete filings may result in a default determination. In the case of exemption requests, this may mean a finding of non-exempt. Corrections or other changes cannot be made to a notarized affidavit - this must be done on a new affidavit and resubmitted.
6. INTEREST DUE FOR LATE PENALTY: If the tax due is not paid within thirty (30) days from the transaction date, interest of 1% per month shall be charged from the sale date until date of payment. Non-payment or underpayment resulting from intent to invade is subject to a penalty up to 50% of tax due.
7. EXEMPT/REFUND: Taxpayers seeking to contest the real estate excise tax must pay the tax in full prior to petition for refund. Refunds may be sought by written petition to the Tulalip Tax & Licensing Division within 30 days from the date of payment in the event of:
 - a) duplicate tax payment
 - b) overpayment due to computation error
 - c) revision of the sale prior to closing
 - d) rescinded transfer
 - e) failure to claim exemption

Requests (petition) for refund must be made on a complete affidavit and accompanied by all required documentation and any evidence supporting the claim of exemption. The authority of the TLD to issue refunds is limited to those authorized under Section 6a (i) – (v) of the REET Regulations adopted under TTC 12.20- Real Estate Excise Tax Code.

Transactions determined as exempt, eligible for tax refund, or refund due to overpayment shall receive a check made out to the original payer within approximately fourteen (14) business days of TLD determination. If the tax was paid by escrow or other agent on the taxpayer's behalf, the taxpayer must seek refund from such party. TLD is no longer able to void and return payment for qualifying exemptions.

8. APPEAL: A taxpayer may appeal a determination of the TLD within thirty (30) days of the receipt of determination. Appeals are made to the Tulalip Court system. If any tax is determined due and unpaid, the taxpayer shall provide such security for the payment of tax as the TLD determines appropriate as a condition of the appeal. This amount is no less than the 1% tax on the sale named in such transaction.
